

JAMES H. HUDNER, JR.

Managing Director

jim.hudner@pearlmeyer.com

Direct: 508.630.1485

Jim Hudner is a managing director in the Boston office of Pearl Meyer. He consults in the areas of total compensation strategy, executive compensation, compensation planning, base salary management, incentive plan design, and performance management.

Mr. Hudner brings 30 years of consulting experience to his position and has consulted to organizations in a wide range of industries including technology, higher education, research organizations, financial services, and manufacturing. Mr. Hudner has considerable experience with the assessment, design, implementation, and communication of compensation programs covering broad-based employee populations. His consulting experience also includes the development and assessment of executive compensation programs in tax-exempt organizations, particularly in light of Section 4958 of the Internal Revenue Code.

Mr. Hudner earned a bachelor's degree from Boston College and an MBA with a concentration in human resources and finance from Babson College in Massachusetts. He is an experienced speaker on a variety of compensation topics and has contributed to several industry publications.