

Employee Compensation Advisory Services

The Environment

In today's complex compensation environment, much time and attention has been focused on executive pay, but what is happening with reward strategies for the rest of the organization? Are companies missing the opportunity to improve the return on their single biggest compensation expense—the broad-based employee population?

Pearl Meyer works with senior executives and human resources professionals from the Fortune 500 to not-for-profits and emerging high-growth companies in a range of industries, including the research, technology, life sciences, consumer products, and financial and professional services sectors.

Our senior consultants' experience and expertise in creating reward programs at all levels—executive, managerial, professional, and support staff—ensures that you will create fully integrated compensation programs that are aligned with your business' strategic focus.

Our Approach

Compensation can act as a catalyst to help you execute your strategy and create long-term value. Our consulting advice is designed around the requirements of your unique situation. We work closely with you to understand your business and leadership strategies, culture, and industry dynamics. We believe that business and human capital objectives should drive your program design and aligning those objectives with your pay program will help you achieve your business goals.

Our Employee Compensation Practice specializes in tailored compensation solutions that help you attract and retain the best people and maximize shareholder value. We partner with you on engagements in various capacities—we can act as counsel on a specific issue or consult on a full project from assessment to implementation.
